P.C.

1. Learned counsel appearing for the 1st respondent Corporation on instructions stated that the petitioners who are affected by road widening scheme will be rehabilitated in survey no.672/12 at Biwavewadi in accordance with the policy of the Corporation. He stated that the Corporation has also a plan to construct the municipal market in survey no.672/12 and on construction of the market the affected persons will be shifted in the market premises in accordance with the policy of the Corporation. He also stated that whose structures are not affected by road widening have already shifted their structures beyond the extended line and the question of their rehabilitation does not arise. Thus, nothing survives in this petition. Petition stands disposed of.
